

Submission:

Alan Corven
29 March 2018

Just giving my 2 cents worth on management of digital assets at death or disability.

In principle why not just treat these the same as physical assets? Can be specified in a will or just part of the asset pool.

Plus Users should be able to nominate someone to “take over” in their online profiles, which the service providers (eg Facebook) must adhere to.

Regards,
Alan Corven